

For immediate release
March 4, 2010

CONTACT: John McDade, Pipe Major
Wee Bit of Scotland
(208) 331-5675, john@weebitofscotland.com

Boise, Idaho – The City of Trees Pipes & Drums will be performing this St. Patrick’s Day at the following locations:

Wednesday, March, 17, 2010

- 5:30 p.m.: Old Chicago – mall
- 6:00 p.m.: Dutch Goose
- 6:15 p.m.: Old Chicago – downtown
- 7:00 p.m.: Tablerock Brewpub, Sully’s (Star)
- 8:00 p.m.: Bardenay (Eagle), VFW
- 9:00 p.m.: Old Chicago – downtown, Willowcreek Grill (Eagle)
- 9:45 p.m.: Falcon Tavern

All performances are free to the public and will include Irish favorites like O’Danny Boy, When Irish Eyes are Smiling, and a traditional Irish Jig Dance. To see latest performance schedule or read more about the band visit www.boisebagpipes.com.

The City of Trees Pipes and Drums have been performing in the Treasure Valley for eight years. The band includes ten pipers and six drummers and has performed in numerous parades and at local events including the annual Treasure Valley Highland Games, 2009 Special Olympics World Winter Games, Race to Robie Creek, Gunfighter Skies Air Show and Robbie Burns Night.

###